STAT

Your note came just today, and I am sorry but, as long as you are physically retired, we cannot take you in CIA. The law just will not permit it unless you are willing to give up your retired pay, and I imagine that would be a little foolish.

Please give me a ring when you come to Washington. With best wishes, believe me,

Sincerely,

Note for record:
dtd 28 Jan sent to CR for file: "Dear Hilly: Will you ask one of your many subordinates to look up the law and see if I can work for CIG. Am pretty sure I can't--Am a physically retired. While I like the financial business very well, with the volume of business the last two years, you can't make enough to pay for your lunches. I'd be delighted to send you our firm's Weekly Reviews if you'd like--good luck. Sincerely, "
